What the cover means

Who is eligible	Every Indian citizen aged 70 or above, whatever their income. Age is the only test.
Cover	Up to ₹5,00,000 a year for the family, on top of any PM-JAY cover the family already has; a person aged 70+ in a PM-JAY family gets an extra ₹5,00,000 for themselves.
Premium	None. The scheme is fully paid for by the government.
Where	Cashless at any PM-JAY empanelled hospital, public or private, anywhere in India.
What is paid	Fixed package rates from the Health Benefit Package list (1,949 procedures), covering the stay, surgery, medicines, tests and implants in the package.
Before and after	Tests and medicines up to 3 days before admission and 15 days after discharge.
Pre-existing illness	Covered from the first day. No waiting period.
Other insurance	A person with private health insurance may also enrol. A person covered by CGHS, ECHS or CAPF schemes chooses either that scheme or Vay Vandana.
Not covered	Out-patient visits and tests that do not lead to an admission; cosmetic treatment.

How to use it

1. At an empanelled hospital, go to the Ayushman Mitra desk with the card and Aadhaar.
2. The hospital checks the card and requests approval for the package. No payment is taken for covered care.
3. If the stay is not a listed package, or the hospital is not empanelled, the private policy can be used instead.
